

WHO ARE WE?

The National Alliance of Melanin Disabled Advocates (NAMD Advocates), a community that centers
Black & Brown leaders with disabilities and health conditions.

THE NATIONAL ALLIANCE OF MELANIN DISABLED ADVOCATES

LEADERSHIP SUMMIT

Between COVID-19, racial tensions, and rising virtual
work expectations,
disability and mental health awareness with organizational leaders is more important than ever.

NOVEMBER 8TH

withkeri.com/2021summit

OUR PRESENCE IS OUR POWER

Our Presence is Our Power is a one-day conference that centers managers of color looking to sharpen their skills. The NAMD Advocates has partnered with a range of Black and Brown leaders who will share strategies on how they have built successful initiatives, particularly through a lens of disability justice.

LEADERSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

Let's be honest, being in the right environment makes all the difference.

It's not every day you can join a space filled with managers of color who are on a similar journey as you.

What's better is our network is hungry to support each other and activate real change across their communities. This Summit will transform the way you lead and excel.

SUMMIT LINEUP

Jordan DeLoach, State Voices

Chad Stanton, Color of Change

Jen White Johnson, Art Activist

Jalyn Radziminski, Count US IN

Tiffany Loftin, Social & Racial Justice Organizer

Zoya Awan, Walmart

TeNita Ballard, Intel

Ryan Easterly, WITH Foundation

Nikki Brown Booker, Borealis Philanthropy

DJ Sabeerah

Toria Jones, Just A Little Pod

Register now @ withkeri.com/2021summit/

NOVEMBER 8, 2021

[withkeri.com/
2021summit](https://withkeri.com/2021summit/)

BENEFITS INCLUDE

- Discussion and education on disability and mental health awareness with leaders of color.
- Opportunity to connect with likeminded leaders and managers.
- Skill building on campaigning, outreach, managing strong departments & organizations, and building quality partnerships.
- Q&A sessions with leaders and experts.